HONOR TO CONNOR STEELBAND EXTRAVAGANZA 18 JANUARY 2019

SweetPanMusicProductions, is organizing a musical event, 'Honor to Connor Steelband Extravaganza' on January 18, 2019.

We firmly believe in keeping the culture, the heritage of Steel Pan music alive by creating different platforms to continue encouraging other Steelbands and Steel Pan artists here on our island. Since 2016 we have been organizing musical events to keep the Steel Pan music alive and recognizing different personalities who were also dedicated to the Steel Pan culture in Aruba.

January 18 it is Aruba's no. one Steel Pan Pioneer the late Edgar Connor's birthday and therefore we are commemorating and honoring Edgar Connor with a typical musical celebration dedicated to his memory. Simultaneously we are joining the 65th Anniversary of Aruba's Carnival, which was also one of the signature events in which the late Edgar Connor was instrumental.

We are promoting this event not only for our local people but also for our Island visitors to come to San Nicolas and enjoy of a wonderful part of our culture, Carnival and Steel Pan music.
Honor to Connor Steelband Extravaganza will take place in front of Charlie's Bar in San Nicolas from 6pm to 10pm.

Performing:
- Invited Steel Pan Players / Steelband - Aruba Panman Foundation pupils of the steel pan lessons at Skol di Arte. - Ivan Barrera better known as DJ Caleto spinning vinyl old classic records. - Carnival Dancers with a Carnival Costume Show
And more...